Margaret Lartey

Professor, Department of Medicine and Therapeutics, University of Ghana Medical School (UGMS), Accra and Consultant Physician and Dermatologist, Korle Bu Teaching Hospital.

Dean, UGMS

I am a Physician with specialization in dermatology and infectious diseases. I was Head of Department of Medicine from 2014-2016 and dermatology unit from 2004-2014. I am currently the Dean of the UGMS.

I teach medical students and residents in dermatology and an examiner of the Ghana and West African Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons. My research areas include the skin and HIV and Skin bleaching.

I revamped the defunct Ghana Society of Dermatology in 2011 and became its first president, serving two terms from 2011-2014. I remain an active member of the society and continue to champion its interests.
