

25th WCD 2023
SINGAPORE
AMBASSADOR

Rataporn Ungpakorn

Dr. Rataporn Ungpakorn started his career as a consultant at the Institute of Dermatology, Bangkok, since 1993 after his dermatology training from King Mongkutklao Medical College Hospital. He received scholarship to attend Fellowship in Medical Mycology at Guy's, King's and St. Thomas' Hospitals in London and became actively involved in many international societies.

He is an active and vibrant speaker with many interests on Mycology, Pigmentary diseases and Dermatology as well as a key organizer for international congresses.

At present, Dr. Rataporn is the Vice-President for International Affairs and Professional Liaison for the Dermatological Society of Thailand, Treasurer for Asian Dermatological Association (ADA), Council member for Asia-Pacific Society of Medical Mycology (APSMM), and founding member for the League of ASEAN Dermatological Societies (LADS) and Asian League of Dermatological Societies (ALDS).

Affiliation:

- Senior Consultant, Dermatology Unit, Chulalongkorn Medical University, Bangkok, Thailand
- Senior Consultant, Institute of Dermatology, Bangkok, Thailand
- Consultant, VitalLife Aesthetics, Bumrungrad International, Bangkok, Thailand
- Consultant, VitalLifeRAKxa@BangKrachao, Thailand