

Andris Rubins

Prof. Andris Rubins, MD, PhD was born in Latvia. He got his professors degree in Dermatovenerology in 1988.

Since then he has made significant impact in developing Dermatovenerology in Latvia and Baltic States by participating in organization of 16 Baltic Association of Dermatovenerology (BADV) Congresses, where 10 of them were held in Riga.

As well he has organized more than 30 local Congresses and Conferences about Dermatovenerology. As well he participated in organization of 6 Euro-Asian Association of Dermatovenerology (EAAD) and was Congress President in 5th EAAD Congress in Riga in 2015.

He was the President of IUSTI EUROPE Congress in Riga in 2011 and as well President of the 21st European Academy of Dermatology and Venereology (EADV) Congress in Prague in 2012, which was attended by more than 8000 participants.

Also Prof. Rubins have made notable footprint scientifically by preparing 9 Dermatovenerology books, the latest of them called "Dermatovenerologija" was published in 2020, he have attended many congresses and universities as invited speaker all around the world (Europe, USA, Japan, China, Australia, Russia) and also he has made more than 250 articles which was published in many world known medical and Dermatovenerology journals.

Right now he works at the University of Latvia as the Head of Dermatovenerology Department.

On the other note he was also Parliamentarian of Latvia (1994-1998) and member of Foreign Affairs commission.